THE SPARTAN CRUISE

FANTASY ISLAND

When we talk about a lifestyle - a Runkz lifestyle - some dismiss our musings as hyperbole. "Race day is one thing, but it's not like I live with my fellow competitors," is the collective (internal) response.

Until now, that is, mud lovers! Yes, the time has finally arrived for a 24/7 fusion of obstacle course madness-meets-day-to-day living. No, we're not inviting you to crash at our massive Malibu estate. But we are giving you first dibs to join obstacle course race pioneer Joe DeSena, CEO of Spartan Race, on the world's very first Caribbean Cruise-slash-Spartan Race.

Make an Impact?

It'll be 72 hours of tropical intensity as you set sail from Miami on the cruise of a lifetime. Surrounded by like-spirited members of the Runkz community, along with their spouses and kids (the latter who travel gratis, if 17 years of age or younger!), you'll enjoy breathtaking vistas of cool, blue ocean waters before reaching a private island in the Bahamas for the most exclusive Spartan Race ever staged.

The 3.5-mile island Spartan Race includes 15 fiendish obstacles, along with a tantalizing $50,000 prize pool that's available for winners in the Elite category (the first 200 racers who register for the Elite wave will be eligible for cash prizes).

In addition to meals, onboard entertainment, guest speakers, insurance, tips and a ton of swag, your deluxe vacay is sure to set the impossible standard by which all of your future vacations will be measured.

The race is included in the cost of the cruise, and travelers do not have to enter the race to join the cruise.

Now you might be asking yourself: "OK, Joe DeSena knows obstacle course racing, but what the hell does he know about travel arrangements!" And the answer is "bupkus." But that's why he's deferred all travel planning (except the Spartan Race itself) to Flying Dutchmen Travel, one of Northern California's most experienced travel agencies.
